

Warsaw — Saska Kępa

An artist's district

1/W/15

Saska Kępa is a Warsaw' district located on the right side of the Vistula River. In the past it was an island with many names: Duck Island, Solec Island and Dutch Island. It used to be a popular entertainment and recreation spot. The buildings you can see today were erected between the First and Second World Wars and many of them are designed in the so-called modernist style. Many district inhabitants were representatives of the so-called 'free professions' as well as military soldiers and artists.
